

LLWYNDYRYS RESIDENTIAL HOME
NEWSLETTER JUNE 2012

Welcome readers to May's Llwyndyrys Residential Home Newsletter.

Here are some pictures of what we did over Easter bank holiday weekend:

Can you spot the rabbit! Lovely delicious home made Easter Cakes a big thank you to kitchen staff making these.

We had our Gardening Afternoon on Tuesday 8th May, we were lucky with the weather too, here are a couple of pictures taken of residents and staff planting hanging baskets and tubs ready for the summer. A big thank you to everyone who helped.

On Tuesday May 15th we had Coffee and cakes afternoon with the Friends and family to raise money for our Greenhouse. We raised £650, (Friends donated £200, Tony and Liz Lovell donated £200). A big thank you to everyone and generous donations. Not much further to go before we will be able to buy the greenhouse and get planting....

It was Ireen Davie's 99th birthday on 19th May, who is our eldest resident. Here's a picture of her on her birthday.

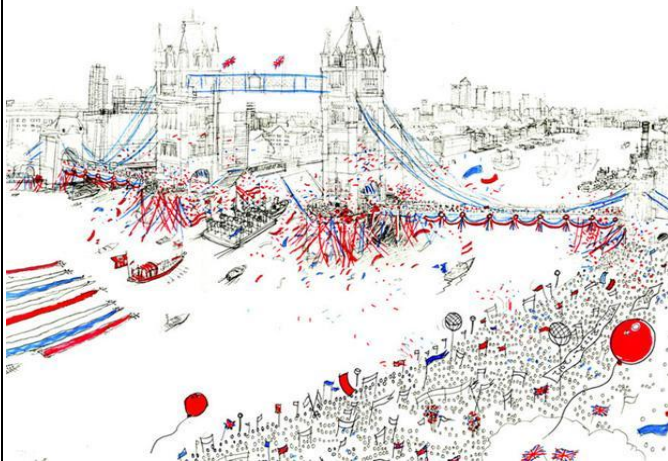

Staff are organising a sponsored walk for Alzheimer's all the proceeds will be donated to Alzheimer's Society. Date to be confirmed, possibly walking around Dinas Cross.

In June, we are organising events around the Royal Jubilee which starts on Saturday 2nd June and carries on through to Tuesday 5th June. Big Jubilee lunch on Sunday, Garden Party on Tuesday, and lots more... all family, friends welcome to come and join in the fun weekend.
